

Research Sources for Newton Farming History Display

Agricultural Bulletin. Atlanta and West Point Rail Road Company, Fall 1931.

Adams, Buddy and Barker, Todd. Informal interviews with local agricultural experts: Sally Budd, Mort Ewing, Fred Greer, Bill Hodges, Sandy Morehouse; June 2024.

Beck, Taylor. Newton County Celebrates 200 Years. "Newton County economy was first driven by agriculture." 2021.

Beck, Taylor. Newton County Celebrates 200 Years. "Salem Camp Meeting 'as close to heaven as you can be.'" 2021.

Carter, Christine Jacobson. The Diary of Dolly Lunt Burge 1848-1879. The University of Georgia Press, Athens and London, 1997.

Cope, Channing. Front Porch Farmer. Turner E. Smith and Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

Georgia Department of Agriculture. "Commissioner G.C. Adams 1933-1935." 2026.
<https://agr.georgia.gov/g-c-adams>

History of Newton County, Georgia. Newton County Historical Society, Covington, Georgia, 1988.

Hubbard, Phillip B. Newton County Celebrates 200 Years. "4-H Beginnings Linked to Newton County." 2021.

Newborn, GA: Characters, Places, Tales. Town of Newborn. 2013.

"Program and History of the Salem Campground Meeting." 1959.

Range, Willard. A Century of Newton Agriculture 1850-1950. University of Georgia Press.

The Covington News. "Covington Farmers Donate Heifers." August 25, 1977.

The Covington News. "Closing Features of Salem's 149th Annual Camp Meeting." August 25, 1977.

The Covington News. "4-H Field Day Held." August 25, 1977.

The Covington News. "Banard Praises Agriculture." June 2, 1977.

The Covington News. "Newton County's Salute to Agriculture Day." June 2, 1977.

The Covington News. "Saturday is a Day of Agriculture Salute." May 26, 1977.

The Covington News. Rural and Urban Page. January 30, 1969.

The Covington News. November 7, 1963.

The Covington News. Rural and Urban Page. April 14th, 1966.

The Covington News. "Melvin King of Newton County Second in State Dairy Program." February 5, 1959.

The Covington News. "Milk Bill Passes House." February 5, 1959.

The Covington News. "FFA-FHA Camp Expansion Program Now Underway." June 13, 1957.

The Covington News. "Local 4H'er Named State Girls Vice President." August 8, 1956.

The Covington News. "Poultry Schools Scheduled for 4-H Members in February." January 27, 1955.

The Covington News. "Commissioner G.C. Adams Endeavors Starts Dairy Industry." February 3, 1933.

The Covington News. "Newton County Man is Now Commissioner of Agriculture." January 13, 1933.

The Enterprise. Covington, Georgia. 1905.

The Enterprise. "Farmers Enthused Over Work of The Association." Covington, Georgia. October 6, 1905.

The Enterprise. Covington, Georgia. September 1, 1905.

The Georgia Enterprise. Covington, Georgia. August 25, 1905.

The University of Georgia College of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences. The Georgia Agricultural Hall of Fame: George Claud Adams. Copy of online article accessed 2016.

United States Department of Agriculture, Upper Ocmulgee River Soil and Water Conservation District. Green Grazing in February Tour, 1950.

University of Georgia Extension. Friends: Introduction to 4-H, Departmental Publication 4-H FM-05, 2018.

Walton News. Covington, Georgia. 1891-1898.

Walton News. Covington, Georgia. July 29th - August 3, 1907.

Walton News. Covington, Georgia. 1907 – 1930.

Williford, William Bailey. The Glory of Covington. Cherokee Publishing Company, Atlanta, Georgia, 1973.